Tempo programs now in 38 countries

TEMPO Holidays has announced an expanded Austria program for 2006 which adds Germany, Belgium, Switzerland and The Netherlands to its product base.

The four extra destinations add to the recently announced expansion of its Latin America program to include Uruguay.

GM Steve Reynolds said the move is responding to market requirements.

"Country additions over the last five years have been based on customer demand, especially customers who are making return

Cancun to suffer

AUTHORITIES in the Mexican resort area near Cancun are bickering about the extent of damage following the devastation caused by Hurricane Wilma this week.

Mexican president Vicente Fox said he thought 80-90% of resorts could reopen in time for the popular northern winter season, but the city's mayor predicted at least six months before Cancun starts to recover.

RC Cruises record

ROYAL Caribbean has reported a US$374.7m profit for the quarter to 30 Sep, up a huge 32% on the same period last year and despite high fuel costs and low capacity growth.

A 100,000 point winner

RIGHT: Tammi Thompson of Flight Centre Carindale in Qld was the lucky winner of the recent Globus promotion which offered a chance of 100,000 Passport to Rewards points for consultants who made bookings for the wholesaler's European Winter products.

Globus marketing mgr Fiona Watson said the winter programs and particularly Christmas tours to France and Germany had seen very strong demand, which she attributes partly to the programs' early release.
